Distribution of ceiling fan for needy women's at Ahmednager

On July 11, 2015, Udaykal Foundation, based in Jalgaon, organized a social activity at Anam Prem samajik Sanstha, Gandhi Maidan, Ahmednagar. The event focused on empowering underprivileged women through the distribution of fans. Additionally, visually impaired children participated in a singing practice session, demonstrating their remarkable talent and enthusiasm. The event was supported by notable contributors, including Shirish Shet, Sanjay khonde, Nandakumar Raut, Deepak Bhonke and Nilesh Bagul, who played a vital role in making the initiative a success. The foundation's efforts highlighted its commitment to fostering community welfare and empowerment.

Career Guidance Program and Prize Distribution

On July 25, 2015, Udaykal Foundation organized a highly impactful career guidance program and essay competition prize distribution ceremony at Brilliant Academy, Amalner. The event, held in memory of Dr. Arun Haribhau Bagul's 90th anniversary, aimed to provide essential career guidance to students who had recently completed their 10th and 12th grades. A total of 45 students actively participated in the program, which served as a platform to inspire and motivate them toward making informed career choices.

The program commenced at 5:00 PM with an insightful session by Shri R.P. Mahajan, a career expert, who shared valuable insights about career pathways and educational opportunities after school. The event was presided over by Shri Raman Devisingh Patil, with Smt. Prabhavati Bagul as the chief guest, alongside notable journalists Shri Rajendra Sutaar and Shri G.N. Sonawane.

Certificates for World Environment Day initiatives were also distributed to students, highlighting the importance of environmental conservation and social responsibility. The prize distribution for the essay competition recognized and rewarded the students' academic and creative efforts, encouraging further engagement.

The event was a resounding success, leaving a lasting impression on students and parents, reaffirming Udaykal Foundation's commitment to nurturing young talent and fostering holistic development.

We extend our heartfelt gratitude to the Amalner city representative of Sakal newspaper for covering this program and bringing it to public attention.

Raksha Bandhan Celebration at Mamata School for girls and boys (deaf and mute), Amalner

On the auspicious occasion of Raksha Bandhan, Udaykal Foundation organized a special event at Mamata School for (deaf and mute) in Amalner. The program aimed to spread love, care, and inclusivity among the students. Around 50 students participated enthusiastically, creating a heartwarming atmosphere.

Smt. Prabhavati Bagul led the celebration by tying Rakhi to the students, symbolizing love and affection. The event was graced by the presence of Mr. Kuber Vaidya, Secretary of Mamata School, who highlighted the school's unique approach to education. He shared that Mamata School is not just a place for learning but a platform that nurtures the talents of specially-abled children, helping them discover and enhance their abilities.

The program received immense support and collaboration from the school's dedicated team of teachers and staff, ensuring the event's success. The celebration not only reinforced the bond of love and care but also provided the children an opportunity to feel valued and included in the festivities.

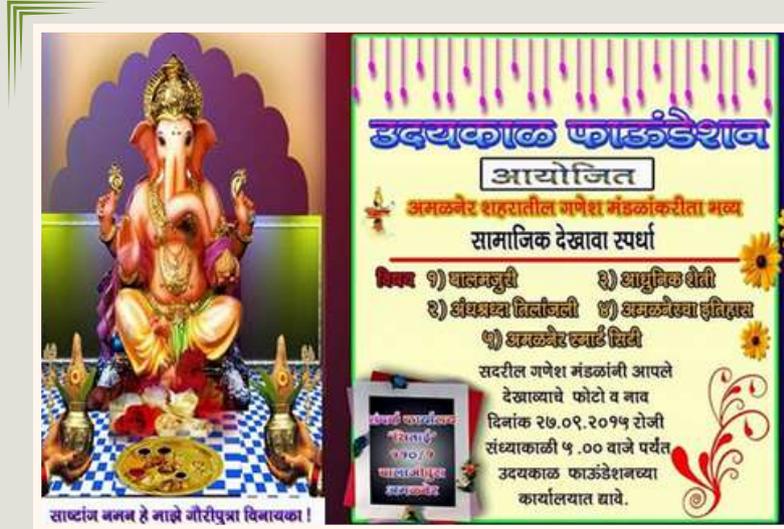

We extend our sincere gratitude to the Sakal newspaper's Amalner city representative for acknowledging and covering this special event.

Udaykal Foundation's thoughtful initiative was well-received by all, leaving a lasting impact on the children and fostering a sense of community and compassion.

Grand Social Tableau Competition for Public Ganesh Mandals in Amalner

Udaykal Foundation, under the guidance of Smt. Prabhavati Bagul, organized a household Ganesh Decoration Competition for residents of Ward No. 6, Amalner. The event aimed to encourage creativity and community participation during the Ganesh festival. Residents actively showcased their beautifully adorned Ganesh idols and thematic decorations. The winning family was honored with a memento sponsored by Smt. Prabhavati Bagul, recognizing their exceptional efforts. The initiative successfully fostered a spirit of unity and celebration among the citizens while preserving cultural traditions. The event was widely appreciated for its organization and thoughtful acknowledgment of participants' efforts.

Diwali Pahaat and Rangoli Competition

On November 12, 2015, Udaykal Foundation organized the "Diwali Pahaat and Rangoli Competition" in Balaji Pura, Ward No. 6, Amalner. The event, held with the generous support of Smt. Prabhavati Bagul, saw enthusiastic participation from young women in the locality. Participants showcased their artistic skills by creating beautiful rangolis, adding vibrancy to the festive celebrations.

The competition concluded with the recognition of three winners:

- First Prize: Chetana Ramesh Chinchore, awarded by Smt. Prabhavati Balakrishna Bagul.
- Second Prize: Neha Rajendra Deshmukh, awarded by Smt. Ashabai Gotushet Mahajan.
- Third Prize: Priyanka Pandurang Sali, awarded by Shri Vishwaas Santosh Patil.

The event's judge, Shri Bhadane Sir, was honored by the President of Udaykal Foundation with a shawl and coconut in appreciation of his contribution.

The event witnessed active participation from residents, who supported and attended the program wholeheartedly. The foundation expressed gratitude to all attendees and participants for their cooperation, which ensured the success of the event.

Udaykal Foundation's initiative not only celebrated the spirit of Diwali but also encouraged creativity and community involvement. The event ended on a festive and joyful note

Children's Day Celebration

On November 14, 2015, Children's Day, Udaykal Foundation embraced the spirit of caring for children, who are often referred to as "flowers of God." Recognizing the importance of nurturing and supporting children, especially those less fortunate, the foundation took a heartwarming initiative in Pune.

As winter approached, the plight of children living on the streets became evident. To address this, Udaykal Foundation celebrated Children's Day by distributing clothes to underprivileged children who live on the streets and often face harsh conditions. The day was filled with not just the distribution of essential items but also engaging conversations and storytelling sessions that brought joy to the children.

This thoughtful gesture reflected the foundation's belief in spreading happiness and fostering a sense of community. The organization's motto, "From Darkness to Light" (तमसो मा ज्योतिर्गमय), symbolizes its mission to bring brightness into the lives of all sections of society.

The event brought smiles to many young faces and left a lasting impact on both the children and the members of Udaykal Foundation. It served as a reminder that creating joy in others' lives enriches our own. This initiative truly celebrated the essence of Children's Day.

World Disability Day Celebration: Health Awareness and Snack Distribution

On the occasion of World Disability Day December 3 2015, Udaykal Foundation, under the leadership of its President, Shri Balakrishna Bagul, organized a heartfelt event at a tribal children's school in Rubji Nagar, Amalner. The foundation, along with its team, distributed snacks to all the children, bringing joy and happiness to their day.

The event also included an informative session led by the school teachers, who educated the children about the importance of health and well-being. Recognizing the crucial role of health and education in shaping the future of children, the foundation emphasized its commitment to supporting and uplifting underprivileged sections of society.

Udaykal Foundation has consistently strived to make a positive impact by contributing to the well-being and development of children and the community. The event was a reflection of the foundation's dedication to creating meaningful changes and fostering a brighter future for all.

The initiative was well-received by the school and the community, leaving a lasting impression on the children and reinforcing the foundation's belief in the power of compassion and social responsibility. Udaykal Foundation remains committed to its mission of doing good for society to the best of its ability.

Community Development and Women's Entrepreneurship Training Initiative

On December 20, 2015, Udaykal Foundation conducted a significant program in the villages of Devgaon-Deoli, Amalner Taluka. The event focused on providing guidance to women from self-help groups regarding entrepreneurship and business training. The foundation also engaged in a constructive dialogue with the villagers about the development of their community.

During the discussions, villagers actively participated and shared their thoughts on various developmental issues. The foundation announced a two-day entrepreneurship training program for women, scheduled for February 2016, to empower them with the skills needed for self-sustenance. The villagers expressed their support for this initiative and pledged their cooperation for the foundation's future projects.

As part of its commitment to holistic development, Udaykal Foundation declared its intention to adopt the village and work collaboratively with the residents to address other developmental needs through collective participation.

Additionally, a detailed discussion was held by the foundation's president regarding a successful biogas project implemented in the village with government subsidies. The project was highlighted as a model for sustainable development and an example of effective resource utilization.

The event concluded with a shared vision of progress and community-driven development, reflecting the foundation's dedication to empowering rural areas through active collaboration and innovative solutions.

New Year Celebration with Shri Sai Seva Special Needs School

On December 31, 2015, Udaykal Foundation celebrated the arrival of the New Year with the students of Shri Sai Seva Special School for differently-abled children in Pune. The event was filled with joy, warmth, and inclusivity as the foundation's team joined the children in welcoming the New Year.

The program was graced by the presence of Chief Guests, Mr. Narendra and Mrs. Pooja Sakhare, along with Mrs. Manjula Bagul. The Udaykal Foundation team distributed snacks to the children and provided food grains to support their meals. Additionally, engaging games were organized, bringing smiles and laughter to the children's faces.

A special highlight of the event was the celebration of a student's birthday. The foundation marked the occasion by cutting a cake and distributing sweets, making the day extra special for the child and her peers. The school, which houses 50 students, was filled with happiness and a festive spirit throughout the day.

The foundation extended heartfelt New Year wishes to all its supporters and well-wishers. The event reflected Udaykal Foundation's commitment to spreading joy and making a positive impact in the lives of those in need, fostering a sense of community and compassion.

Dental Check-Up and Treatment Camp for Children at Shri Sai Seva Deaf & Dumb School, Pune

On February 3, 2016, Udaykal Foundation organized a dental check-up and treatment camp at Shree Sai Seva Deaf and Dumb Residential Home and Research Center in Pune. This initiative was undertaken to ensure the oral health and hygiene of the children residing in the institution.

The camp catered to a total of 50 children from the residential home. Out of these, 40 children actively participated in the dental check-up and treatment program. The children, all with hearing and speech impairments, were carefully attended to by skilled dental professionals who provided them with thorough examinations and necessary treatments.

The program aimed to address dental health issues and raise awareness about maintaining oral hygiene among the children. The dental team ensured the children were comfortable throughout the process and provided them with guidance on dental care practices.

This initiative by Udaykal Foundation was well-received by the institution, as it addressed a critical aspect of the children's health. The foundation remains committed to supporting such causes and providing essential services to underprivileged and differently-abled individuals. The event concluded successfully, reflecting Udaykal Foundation's dedication to creating a positive impact in the lives of the children it serves.

Shiv Jayanti Celebration with Chhatrapati Shivaji Maharaj's Pooja and Powada Performance by Women

On February 19, 2016, Udaykal Foundation, under the guidance of Smt. Prabhavati Bagul (social worker), organized a grand Shiv Jayanti celebration in the Balaji Pura area of Amalner. For the first time, the event featured the worship of Chhatrapati Shivaji Maharaj by women, followed by the recital of traditional "Powada" (ballads), showcasing the legacy and bravery of Shivaji Maharaj.

The program received overwhelming participation and support from the local community, making it a memorable and successful event. Residents of the area enthusiastically attended and appreciated the initiative, reflecting their respect and admiration for the legacy of the great Maratha king.

The event concluded with heartfelt thanks from Udaykal Foundation to all the citizens for their enthusiastic response and participation. Special gratitude was extended to all friends and supporters of the foundation for their invaluable cooperation and efforts in organizing the celebration.

Udaykal Foundation is committed to fostering cultural and historical awareness through such events. The success of the Shiv Jayanti celebration has strengthened the bond within the community, and the foundation looks forward to continued support from all in its future endeavors. May this collective spirit of unity and cultural pride thrive forever.

Youth Engagement and Nutritional Awareness Initiative in Devgaon-Deoli

On December 20, 2016, Udaykal Foundation, which has adopted the village of Devgaon-Deoli in Amalner Taluka, organized a series of community-focused activities as part of its ongoing developmental efforts over the past four months.

The day began with a discussion with Anganwadi teachers and their assistants on the importance of nutritional diets for children and innovative teaching methods to enhance early education. This interaction aimed to strengthen the foundation of education and health for the village's younger generation. Fun-filled activities, games, and interactive storytelling sessions were conducted with young children, fostering joy and engagement.

Additionally, a youth meeting was held under the guidance of Dr. Vikas Amte to discuss the significance of the upcoming "Shram Sanskar Shibir" (Work Ethics Camp) to be held in Somnath in 2016. The session emphasized the value of the camp in instilling work ethics and community service in young minds. A total of 25 youths and villagers attended the meeting, with many registering for participation in the camp. Udaykal Foundation assured full support to the registered participants and encouraged other youths from Amalner city and taluka to join this impactful initiative.

The foundation's efforts were met with enthusiasm, reinforcing its commitment to fostering holistic development and community empowerment in the region.

Celebrating International Women's Day: Honoring Women's Achievements and Addressing Challenges

On March 8, 2016, Udaykal Foundation organized a special program titled “Awakening and Honoring Women’s Achievements” to celebrate International Women’s Day. The event was held in the Balaji Pura area of Amalner city and highlighted the contributions and achievements of women in society.

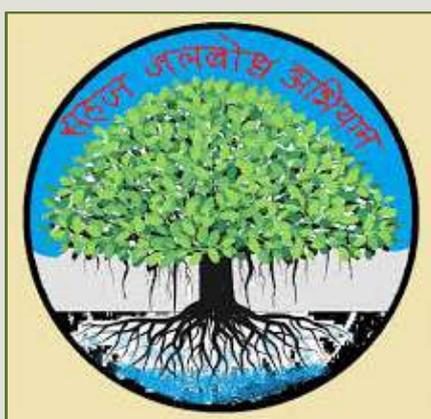

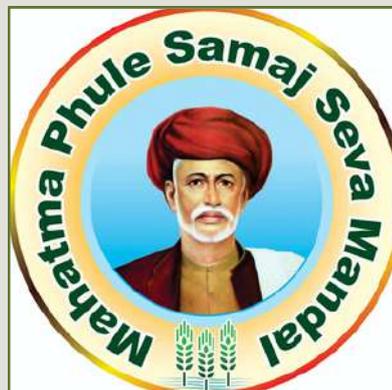

The program focused on acknowledging the vital role of women who, today, work alongside men and contribute significantly to societal progress. The event was graced by the presence of Smt. Prabhavati Balakrishna Bagul, a social worker, who honored the achievements of the women in the community. She presented flower bouquets to all the women present, recognizing their hard work and dedication.

The event also included an interactive session to understand the challenges and issues faced by women in their daily lives. Addressing the gathering, Smt. Prabhavati Bagul encouraged women to remain strong and resilient in the face of adversity. She assured them of continued support and emphasized the importance of standing up against injustice whenever necessary.

The program was well-received by the community and served as a platform to empower women and promote gender equality. Udaykal Foundation remains committed to supporting women and addressing their concerns to foster a more inclusive society.
