Volunteer learning experience

Project ASHA

It was a humbling experience knowing about the struggles of the people who were effected by the COVID pandemic, and came to know about the ways in which Udaykal Foundation is helping them by providing them entrepreneurial values. - Satwik Sahu

I was part of developing the case studies, to be honest i was scared and nervous for calling the women but after the first call it gave me broad perspective for life. Tje project was on the emotional side as there were heart touching stories but also taught me that life is unpredictable and self motivation can make you achieve things. - Urvi Kapee

It was a great learning experience! Got to interact closely with so many different people and learn from the practical experiences that they faced. Overall, it facilitated personal growth and made me extremely empathetic. - Vrinal Barapatre
