Kisanputra's Bhaubeej program organized by Udaykal Foundation concluded.

Udaykal Foundation celebrated Diwali festival by a unique way. Distributed ration grains kits to women who were single due to Covid and were gifted Bhau Beej.

This initiative was implemented through the concept of Nilesh Bagul, vice president of Udaykal Foundation. Husband died due to Covid and woman became single. All the responsibilities of the family came to this woman, while celebrating the festival of happiness like Diwali, the women were given grain kits by pledging that atleast having Diwali at home.

Inter Bharati Pune Branch Secretary for this program. Ram Mane, President of Udaykal Foundation Shri. Balkrishna Bagul, Shri. Sachin Bagul, Mrs. Sharmila Sul, Mrs. Impressive Bagul and Mrs. Manjula Bagul was present.

Single women expressing their opinion in the program, Udaykal Foundation, who was always there in times of crisis took initiative and invited us to celebrate Bhau Beej and gave food to the children as the financial situation in the family was not good, so the women thanked all the donors.

Covid single women expressed their opinion that the sensitive person in the society gives strength to survive and the cooperation given by the donors for it made Diwali sweet.

Udaykal Foundation organization thanked the donors of the community who cooperated for this initiative.
